CLERK: Mr. President, a new Resolution. LR 101. Read title.

PRESIDENT: Senator Burbach.

SENATOR BURBACH: Mr. President, members of the Legislature. I will, right after lunch, ask to suspend the rules and take this up today. I was sorry I did not place them on your desk. I'd like to have the members read them shortly after lunch. Then I would ask to suspend the rules and take them up today.

PRESIDENT: While we're waiting the Chair would also like to recognize, and ask to stand and be recognized, Thomas S. Fitzgerald, III, son of Senator Tom Fitzgerald. Could you stand and be recognized. Actually, the reason I asked you to stand, Tom, is your Father thought you were asleep.

CLERK: Mr. President, there's a report from the Executive Board dealing with the Interim Study Committees. This has been distributed to the membership.

PRESIDENT: Senator Mahoney.

SENATOR MAHONEY: Mr. President, a minute for explanation. The Executive Board met yesterday in executive session and deliberated the various resolutions that had been presented by the individual Senators concerning topics for study during the interim period. The findings have now been placed on your desks. The resolutions are in capsule form as the explanation. Of course, in our Journal each of the explanations are more broadly explained by the fact that you'll get to see the resolution in its full form. I have also, on the second copy as you'll note, those three resolutions that the Executive Board felt were not necessary during this interim period. I'd like to suggest to the President here and the members that I would make a motion to approve all of the resolutions that we have. Then if there is motions to approve any of the three, that that come after my initial motion and the vote on the approval. However, I stand open now to the members of the Legislature if there's any question on the approved resolutions. The Executive, the full nine members were present. We deliberated on these motions. I ask the President at this time that I present a motion to the Legislature for approval of resolutions starting with 18 continuing to resolution number 99. I ask the President at this time to ask the Legislature for a vote of approval on those resolutions. Mr. President.
